ARTS VENUES AND ORGANISATIONS ON YOUR DOORSTEP

East London is well served for arts venues, so you'll be spoilt for choice as to how you spend your free time. From independent cinemas, live performance venues and theatres to arts galleries and community organisations, there's something for everyone. We've picked out a few places you might be interested in below.

Bow Arts Trust and Nunnery Gallery

A free public gallery with a focus on championing the work of emerging artists and uncovering local history and heritage. There's a diverse programme of exhibitions and accompanying events as well as a café and shop. The gallery is surrounded by Bow Arts Trust's studio spaces, providing affordable creative workspaces for a community of artists/makers/creatives.

Castle Cinema

An independent, community-focused cinema in Hackney, showing films and live arts screenings and events with a restaurant and bar.
thecastlecinema.com

Chisenhale Gallery

An experimental and innovative contemporary art gallery, commissioning, producing and exhibiting work from international and UK-based artists.
chisenhale.org.uk

Hackney Empire

A live arts venue offering a diverse programme of live music, comedy, theatre, dance and more.

WELCOME TO ALL LOUGHBOROUGH UNIVERSITY LONDON STUDENTS

LU Arts provides a range of creative opportunities for London students. These activities, whether it be workshops, performances or competitions, not only enable you to learn new skills and meet new friends but also support your wellbeing and employability.

This guide provides information on some of the activities that LU Arts offers London students as well as some of the rich cultural offer on your doorstep. Equally you might want to develop an arts event in London yourself. If you would like to discuss this and how LU Arts could help you make it happen, please get in touch.

Enjoy your time in London and make the most of what is a very creative capital.

All the best
Nick
Director, LU Arts

OPPORTUNITIES FOR LOUGHBOROUGH LONDON STUDENTS

Music and Arts Scholarships

Our annual scholarships are open to all PG and Loughborough London students and are awarded to students who demonstrate ability, passion and potential in any art form. Art forms could include music, creative writing, photography, film, dance, performing arts, visual arts and crafts. Each scholarship comes with a £100 cash prize and up to £500 of support in the form of mentoring, tuition, training or other activities to help develop your skills and knowledge. Find out more and download an application form from our website.
2021/22 deadline 25 October 2021.

Arts Workers Wanted

Do you have a creative skill you could pass on to others? Would you like to get paid to run an arts workshop? We offer free training for students in how to run arts workshops. Once students have completed this training they can join our pool of arts workers. We call on these workers from time to time to deliver workshops for us (in person or online).

Creative Opportunities

From paid job roles to arts commissions and competitions, we offer student opportunities throughout the year to help you gain skills and experience, earn money and showcase your talents.

Full details of any current opportunities and how to apply, including arts worker training, can be found under the Employability and Enterprise section of our website.

Online events

Our varied events programme includes some online events, which may include artist talks, discussions, screenings and creative workshops. All our online events are open to Loughborough London students and staff and are advertised on the Loughborough London website:

COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA

The Hackney Community Orchestra is a group for beginners, re-starters and anyone who wants to play music regularly with a friendly group of people. It's a place to learn and develop confidence playing in an informal ensemble, with a repertoire that ranges from baroque to pop. They rehearse every Thursday from 6.30-8pm at The Bridge Academy, Laburnum Street E2 8BA. Venue may vary during holidays.
