ARTS

GET YOUR UNIVERSITY LIFE OFF TO A CREATIVE START

From music and performing arts, to creative writing and visual arts, we've got it covered.

INTRODUCTION

If you're looking for something creative to do in your spare time, then LU Arts is here to help.

We want to get students involved in the arts – no matter what you are studying or what your level of experience is.

You can learn new skills, gain valuable experience, meet new people and, more importantly, have fun.

Getting involved in the arts could also have a positive impact on your mental wellbeing.

Lots of our events are free or just £3

Happy Mondays

Get out, be sociable, make something, enjoy yourself. That's what our Happy Mondays are all about.

We've got workshops for learning new skills, creating something new, relaxing and having fun as well as performance nights to enjoy or take part in.

Whatever you're into, we've got your Monday covered.

Music

Keep up your love of music by joining a society, using our music practice rooms, or taking subsidised music tuition. You can also join our free Music VIP club to stay connected with all the latest music news and events on campus.

Visual arts

Follow our sculpture trail, enjoy regular lunchtime exhibitions in the Martin Hall Gallery or get involved in our Handicrafts artist residency, creating new work for the University's art collection.

For contemporary art enthusiasts there's Radar, bringing artists to campus to create new work in response to research taking place at Loughborough.

Societies

Join a student society and carry on your hobbies at university or discover a new one, with over 25 arts-related societies at the union.

Crafternoons

Spend your afternoons taking a break from your studies, unwinding and being creative with our crafternoon sessions – free online arts workshops, run by students.
