Researcher refers to NIHR Research Passport Algorithm to determine which supporting documents are required for an NHS Research Passport application.

If required by NIHR guidance researcher:

- completes a LU Research Passport Occupational Health (OH) Questionnaire and submits to OH. Researcher contacts OH to discuss screening.
- contacts HR (staff)/Academic Registry (students) to apply for DBS check.

Researcher completes NHS Research Passport application form section 1 to 3 and passes to line manager or supervisor.

Line manager/supervisor reviews CV and training needs, takes appropriate action on any training needs and completes section 4 and returns to researcher.

Researcher submits completed NHS Research Passport application form to LU Research Governance Officer along with OH approval and DBS disclosure if required.

Researcher Submits NHS Research Passport application form to relevant NHS R&D Office with copy of CV, DBS disclosure certificate and evidence of OH clearance as appropriate.

Researcher submits copy of NHS response to Research Governance Officer.
