

School of Science

Diversity Allies

Aware, Supportive, Active!

How to be a good diversity ally ...

- Learn what you don't know about others' experiences.
- Get to know a diverse set of people.
- Learn about your implicit bias and work to counter it.
- Recognise where your characteristics give you social privileges.
- Be an ally to support others, not to feel good about yourself.
- Silence is not Safety – engage in the diversity discussion.
- Don't be afraid to make mistakes, and accept correction gracefully.
- Use your influence to give other people a voice.
- Avoid stereotypes, even those that seem “positive”.
- Be an active bystander.

Find out more on our website:

www.lboro.ac.uk/science/equality-diversity/allies

Follow us:

 @LboroScience
#LboroAllies

Loughborough
University