

Terms and Conditions of Study 2024/25: Summary of changes

Section 1: Terms and Conditions for Applicants

1.8 Accuracy of the Information in Your Application

Cross reference to section 2.3 added to provide clarity on action taken if a registered student is found to have omitted significant information, made false claims or provided fraudulent or plagiarised information during the admissions process.

1.13 Right to Study in the UK and Funding Your Studies

Cross reference to section 2.3 added to provide clarity on action taken if a registered student is found to have omitted significant information, made false claims or provided fraudulent or plagiarised information during the admissions process.

Section 2 – Terms and Conditions for Registered Students

2.1 Registration

Update made to the website link provided for student self-service facilities.

2.2 The Student Charter, Participation, Attendance and Engagement

Update made to the website links provided for the University's policies on participation, attendance and engagement for students on taught programmes and Fitness to Study.

2.3 Behaviour and Discipline

Update made to the website links provided for the University's policies on Harassment & Bullying, and Sexual Harassment, Violence & Misconduct.

Information added to clarify that the Academic Registrar may terminate a student's studies at the University if they are found to have omitted significant information, made false statements and/or provided fraudulent or plagiarised information during the admissions process or misled the University regarding their immigration status at any time during the admissions process or once a registered student.

2.5 Changes to Programmes and Modules after You Commence Your Studies

Update made to the website link provided for the University's Student Protection Plan.

2.7 Tuition Fees and Other Charges

Update made to the website link provided for further details of the arrangements for making payments to the University.

2.13 Membership of Loughborough Students' Union

Update made to the website link provided for further information about the data sharing agreement between the University and LSU

2.15 Health and Safety

Update made to the website link provided for the University's Health and Safety Policy.

Date: 27 September 2023