Substantive Awards and Honorary Degrees

(Version effective from 3 October 2005 to 19 December 2005)

III.1 Substantive Awards

1. Substantive degrees, diplomas, certificates, fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions and prizes shall be awarded by authority of the Senate on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Charter, Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations.
2. Awards shall be conferred in person or in absentia at the Congregation next following their award by the Senate unless a candidate has requested that his/her award be conferred at a later Congregation. Exceptionally, the Registrar or Academic Registrar may waive this requirement and permit an award to be conferred at a date other than a congregation.
3. Staff candidates for research degrees shall be presented by the Vice-Chancellor or in his/her absence by some other Senior Officer of the University.
4. Candidates for degrees shall be presented at a Congregation by the Dean of the Faculty concerned or in his/her absence by some other member of the Board of the Faculty.
5. No person shall be admitted to an award in the University unless he/she has paid the fees prescribed by Regulations and has satisfied all other Regulations.
6. Senate shall prescribe in Regulations the conditions under which a substantive award may be awarded to a member of the staff of the University.
7. Aegrotat Awards
If a candidate in the final year of a first degree programme be prevented by illness or other sufficient cause from obtaining a degree, application may be made in writing by the student, or in exceptional circumstances on his/her behalf, to the Senate for an aegrotat degree. The Senate, upon the recommendation of the External Programme Assessor appointed to the student's programme, may deem him/her a successful candidate and grant him/her an aegrotat degree without division or classification. Such candidates shall not necessarily be prevented from going forward to a programme for a higher degree in the University where an Honours degree is prescribed by Regulations as a requirement.
8. No award shall be conferred except in pursuance of a resolution of the Senate.

III.2 Honorary Degrees

Honorary graduands shall be presented by a Public Orator of the University.
