

Regulation XXII - Taught Programme Internal and External Examiners and Review and Programme Boards

(Version effective from 3 October 2005 until 31 July 2011)

1. The Senate will designate which department and which Faculty Board will have responsibility for and have jurisdiction over each module and programme. In this Regulation the expressions "appropriate department" and "appropriate Faculty Board" mean the department or Faculty Board which has been so designated. For the purpose of this Regulation the Senate shall have the power to nominate any other body as being equivalent to a department and any post as being equivalent to that of Head of Department.

Internal Examiners

2. Internal examiners shall be designated by Senate or by the appropriate Faculty Board acting on its behalf as being responsible for the assessment of specific taught modules and shall be either:
 - 2.1 Full-time members of the Academic Staff of the University.
 - 2.2 Other persons who may be appointed by the Senate from time to time on the recommendation of the appropriate Faculty Board.
3. Any person appointed by Senate as an Internal Examiner shall be appointed for one year from the date of appointment and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

Internal Verifiers

4. Internal Verifiers shall be appointed for Introductory Studies units only and shall be full-time members of the academic staff of the University, trained and accredited to national Training and Development Lead Body standards.

External Examiners

5. External Examiners shall be appointed by Senate or by the relevant Faculty Board and shall take responsibility for specific modules.

6. A person holding an appointment as an External Examiner may be appointed as an External Programme Assessor by the relevant Faculty Board. External Programme Assessors shall take responsibility for specific programmes.
7. Each External Examiner shall be appointed for not more than three years in the first instance but such appointment may be extended to a total duration of not more than four years. He/she may not serve as an External Examiner in the same academic department during the period of four years next following the termination of such an appointment.
8. Each External Examiner shall submit an annual report in writing to the Vice-Chancellor on the matters for which he/she has been responsible. The Vice-Chancellor, having considered the report, shall draw to the attention of Senate and the appropriate Faculty Boards those matters which appear to require their attention.

External Verifiers

9. External Verifiers shall be appointed by the external validating bodies for Introductory Studies programmes only. External Verifiers' reports on the matters for which they have been responsible shall be submitted to the Vice-Chancellor, who, having considered their reports, shall draw to the attention of Senate and the appropriate Faculty Boards those matters which appear to require their attention.

Programme Boards

10. Programme Boards shall have the following powers delegated by Senate:
 - 10.1 To determine whether students have met the requirements to pass a Part.
 - 10.2 To confirm Module Marks and the award of associated credit.
