Module materials booking conditions

- Access to the module is only available once your payment has been cleared. Book in good time if you wish the USB pen-drive to arrive by the start date of the programme. Delivery dates are only guaranteed if booking deadlines have been met.
- Bookings and payment received later than the booking deadline may not be processed in sufficient time for the start of the module.
- Students who book modules after the stated deadline will not be able to use late receipt of materials to make impaired performance claims, late submission or deferral requests.
- In all cases materials will only be released once payment has been verified by the University Finance Office.
- For cancelled bookings, payment will be refunded but an administrative charge of 10% will be deducted.

Guarantor's details

This form is for first-time distance learning applicants who have not already completed it.

It can also be used by current students who need to change their guarantor.

You should nominate a local guarantor who occupies a position of authority, for example your sponsor, employer, manager or supervisor. It is your guarantor's responsibility to email WEDC indicating that they consider each of your assignment submissions to be your own. Therefore, your guarantor should know you well and be contactable before each submission deadline. Your guarantor cannot be a member of your family.

Once you have completed and returned this form, we will contact your proposed guarantor.

If they need further information, please ask them to contact the Distance Learning Administration Team: (wedc-admissions@lboro.ac.uk).

New guarantor arrangements from July 2020

- BEFORE the submission deadline, students email their coursework to their guarantor (cc: wedc.distL@lboro.ac.uk).
- ON OR BEFORE the submission deadline, your guarantor emails WEDC (wedc.distL@lboro.ac.uk) to confirm that the coursework is the work of the student (cc student).
- Feedback for coursework will not be sent if we do not have the above confirmation.
