

Friday 20th May

Sessions in Room HE.0.10, ground floor, Clyde Williams Building

8.30	Registration
9.00	Welcome to Loughborough	Professor Tom Jackson, Associate Dean Research, School of Business and Economics, Loughborough University
9.05	Session 1: Overview of Issues	Professional and Ethical Standards in Banking: A Review of the Scholarly Literature and the Policy Responses Professor Alistair Milne, Loughborough University and Professor Andy Mullineux, University of Birmingham
9.40	Break and Refreshments
10.00	Session 2: Tools and Metrics Chair: Dr Donald Hislop, Loughborough University	Developments in Sustainability Accounting: The trade-offs in "Conduct Costs" Reporting Calvin Benedict, CCP Research Foundation Accounting for Risk Culture Dr Simon Ashby, University of Plymouth Discussant: Dr Alper Kara, Loughborough University
11.30	Session 3: Panel 1 Chair: Dr Constanza Russo, Queen Mary	Promoting Better Standards of Behaviour Alison Cottrell, Banking Standards Board Stephen Pegge, Lloyds Banking Group Roger McCormick, CCP Research Foundation
12.30	Lunch
13.10	Session 4: Stakeholder Perceptions Chair: Dr Donald Hislop, Loughborough University	Findings from investor engagement with the UK banking sector on conduct and culture Paul Cox, Nest Employment Savings Trust (NEST) Trust and perceived Professionalism in UK Financial Services Professor Jim Devlin, University of

		Nottingham Discussant: Professor Claudia Girardone, University of Essex
14.40	Break and Refreshments
15.00	Session 5: Panel 2 Chair: Professor David Llewellyn, Loughborough University	Regulation, Governance and Culture Change in Banks Professor John Mellor, University of Leicester David Blunt, FCA Peter Hahn, Henry Grunfeld Professor of Banking, ifs University College Peter Swabey FCIS, ICSA: The Governance Institute
16.00	Session 6: Keynote Chair: Professor David Llewellyn	Ethics Versus Ethos In US and UK Megabanking Professor Ed Kane, Boston College

Saturday 21st May 2016

Sessions in room BE.0.53, Sir Richard Morris Building

9.00	Session 7 Chair: Professor Ed Kane, Boston College	Should private opt-out collective redress actions be introduced in the UK for the resolution of widespread consumer financial services claims? Shazia Afghan, Queen Mary A practitioner's perspective on banking litigation Dr David McIlroy, Forum Chambers and SOAS, University of London Corporate Governance of Banks Deepa G. Driver, Henley Business School
10.30	Break and Refreshments
10.50	Session 8 Chair: Con Keating, Brighton Rock Group	Ethical standards and cultural assimilation in financial services Dr John Thanassoulis, University of Warwick

		Discussant (TBC): Professor Alistair Milne, Loughborough University Ethics and Banking Professor E. Philip Davis, Brunel University and NIESR Discussant: Alan Brener, Queen Mary
12.20	Session 9: Panel 3 Chair: Con Keating, Brighton Rock Group	Incentives, ethics and culture in financial institutions Professor Richard Werner, University of Southampton Professor David Vines, University of Oxford Paul Dembinski, Observatoire de la Finance
13.20	Lunch
14.00	Session 10	Bonus Caps, Deferrals, and Bankers' Risk-Taking Professor Jussi Keppo, National University of Singapore Discussant: Dr Ka Kei Chen, University of Westminster Bank culture and lending behaviour: Evidence from syndicated loans Dr Louis Nguyen, University of St. Andrews Discussant: Professor Kent Matthews, Cardiff University