

Accountancy, Banking and Finance

What opportunities are open to you?

Start your research

For information and advice to help you find out more about this career area, and look at job profiles, visit the Prospects website, All About Finance and National Careers Service. It might also be useful to have a look at what Loughborough Graduates have done after graduation.

Resources to help you find jobs, experience and keep you commercially aware

- Accounting Web - Recent reports, news and tools for searching for courses and training
- Accountancy Daily - Background information on the finance industry
- AMTTraining - How to get into Investment Banking, what you need to know
- Association of International Accountants - Facilities to search for details of qualifications and training available
- Banking Technology Jobs - Online financial board from Banking Technology magazine
- City Jobs - Jobs in niche sectors of banking and financial services
- efinancial careers - Recent news, advice and vacancies
- GAAP - Search jobs, and see how to get into the accounting and finance industry
- Inside Careers - Careers information and vacancies
- Maths Careers - Careers information for mathematical sciences
- MBA Match - Search for jobs and career development sites

Further Study

You might decide to continue to study or further qualifications are a requirement for your chosen career

Training to be a chartered accountant involves undertaking a training contract with an employer approved by one of the institutes. See ICAEW Careers for further information.

Other study options are:

Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment \(CISI\)

The London Institute of Banking & Finance

