CONTENTS

Preface v

1. DRIVER'S VISUAL SEARCH BEHAVIOUR

Driver Eye Scanning Behaviour When Reading Symbolic Warning Signs
H.T. Zwahlen and T. Schnell 3

Modelling Changes in Eye Fixation Patterns While Driving
A. Liu, L. Veltri and A.P. Pentland 13

Drivers' Visual Search In A Field Situation And In A Driving Simulator
C.J. Carter and O. Laya 21

Analysis System for Eye Movements in Driving Situations
O. Laya 33

2. VISUAL INPUTS TO VEHICLE STEERING

How Speed Affects The Way Visual Information Is Used In Steering
M.F Land and J. Horwood 43

Forced Peripheral Vision Driving Paradigm: Evidence For The Hypothesis That Car
Drivers Learn To Keep In Lane With Peripheral Vision
H. Summala 51

3. PERCEPTION OF 'TIME TO COLLISION'

Effects Of Distance And Speed On Time To Arrival Estimation In An Automobile: Two Classes Of Time?
M.A. Recarte and L.M. Nunes 63

Role Of Environmental Complexity And Perceptual Style In The Visual Anticipation Of A Collision During Driving
C. Berthelon, D. Mestre, A. Pottier, R. Pons, V. Cavallo 73

Visual Information And Perceptual Style In Time-To-Collision Estimation
V. Cavallo, C. Berthelon, D. Mestre and A. Pottier 81
4. SIMULATED DRIVING PERFORMANCE

Simulated Driving With Camera View
J. B.F. van Erp and P. Padmos

Calibration Trials Of TRL Driving Simulator
B. Duncan

Task-Induced Fatigue Effects On Simulated Driving Performance
P.A. Desmond and G. Matthews

5. HEAD UP DISPLAYS

Automotive Contact Analogue Head-Up Display Images And Distance Estimation.
L. Stapleton, N.J. Ward and A.M. Parkes

Defining The “HUD Benefit Time Window”
R.J. Kiefer

The Effect Of Viewing A Car Head-Up Display On Ocular Accommodation And Response Times
J.S. Wolffsohn G.K. Edgar and N.A. McBrien

6. OPTIMISING COMPREHENSION OF ROAD SIGNS

Road Signs And Markings For Railway Bridges: Development And Evaluation
T. Horberry, M. Halliday, A.G. Gale and J.N.V. Miles

Optimising The Legibility Of Symbol Signs
F. Schieber

Design Rules For Matrix Signs: The Maximum Allowable Deviation From Grid
Position
J.W.A.M. Alferdinck

Visual Performance Of Fluorescent Retroreflective Traffic Control Devices
G.D. Jenssen, B. Brekke, S. Chrysler and D. Burns

7. VEHICLE CONSPICUITY

The Conspicuity of Bicycle Lighting Under On-Road Conditions
P.T. Cairney

The Effects Of Cognitive Style In A Laboratory Investigation Of Motorcycle
Conspicuity
M.P. Langham
8. NIGHT DRIVING ACCIDENTS
Evaluation Of The Human Factors Implications Of Jaguar's First Prototype Near Infared Night Vision System
P. Barham, P. Oxley and B. Ayala

9. WORKLOAD DEMANDS OF IN VEHICLE DISPLAYS
An Investigation into the Utility of Various Metrics for the Evaluation of Driver Information Systems
T.C. Lansdown and M. Fowkes

The Development of a Standardised Method for Measurement of Driver Visual Demand
M. Fowkes and T.C. Lansdown

Modelling The Relationship Between Driver In-Vehicle Visual Demands And Accident Occurrence
W.W. Wierwille and L. Tijerina

10. HUMAN FACTORS OF IN VEHICLE DISPLAYS
In-Car Visual Strategies And Information Processing
A. Pottier

Integrated Multifunctional Optical Displays In Trucks
M.M. Popp and B. Färber

11. ROAD ENVIRONMENT AND DRIVER BEHAVIOUR
Categorisation And Appraisal Of Rural Two-Lane Undivided 80-Km/H Roads
F.J.J.M. Steyvers

Self-Explaining Roads: Subjective Categorisation Of Road Environments
J. Theeuwes

Vehicle-Motion Detection: Inhibitory Effects Of Self-Motion And Optical Flow Structure
J.A. Santos

Linear Vection As A Tool To Study The Visual Control Of Self-Motion
X.M. Sauvan
12. ENVIRONMENTAL SOURCES OF PERCEPTUAL IMPAIRMENT
The Mandelbaum Effect And Night Driving
K. Chauhan and N. Charman

New Aspects of Minimum Requirements for Windscreen Standards
W. Schneider

13. DEALING WITH VISUAL IMPAIRMENT
Effect Of A Dynamic Central Task On The Useful Field Of View: Investigation Of Visual And Attentional Abilities Of Elderly Drivers.
A. Pauzié and C. Gabaude with J.J. Denis

Effect Of Ageing And Vision On Measures Of Driving Performance
J.M. Wood

Driver Vision Screening: Pilot Study
M. Dunne, D. Styles, P. Wardell, L. Stylianou and R. Sprakes

The Effect Of Partial Restrictions Of Visibility When Driving An Industrial Vehicle
J.F. Schouller and F. Hella
