

Peter Keen

Born 1964, High Wycombe, Bucks.

Education:

B.A. Sports Studies, University College, Chichester 1985

M.Phil. Exercise Physiology, University of Loughborough 1989

Employment History:

1985-1992 Various academic positions, University College, Chichester

1989-1992 National Track Cycling Coach

1992-1997 Senior Lecturer, University of Brighton

1997-2003 Performance Director, British Cycling

2003-2004 Director, Lucozade Sport Science Academy, GlaxoSmithKline

2004- Performance Advisor, UK Sport

Notable Awards

1985 Sports Council Dissertation of the Year

1992 English Coach of the Year

1999 SportsCoach UK Mussabini medal for Coaching excellence

- 2000 SportsCoach UK Dyson award for lifetime contribution to coaching
Honorary Doctorate, University of Brighton
Honorary Masters Degree, University College Chichester
Sportwriters Association Manning Award for contribution to British Sport
- 2003 O.B.E. for services to sport

Personal Achievements

British Junior 10 mile Cycling Champion 1980. Attended 5 Olympic Games as a GB Team official (Seoul, Barcelona, Atlanta, Sydney & Athens), and over 20 Cycling World Championships. Coached both men and women to 9 world records and gold medals at Olympic, World, Commonwealth and European Championships, and over 50 national titles. Coached Chris Boardman MBE from age 18 until his retirement in 2000, aged 32.

Published 18 peer-reviewed scientific papers and abstracts between 1985-2006